These include everything that the politicians think necessary to win in their game of bluff. By their standard, he is below zero. And yet he has the confidence of the people as no other man of our time has it.

Even if there are cynics who think that he has gained this confidence by making the people think that under his undramatic exterior there are qualities which really do not exist, they will concede that his lack of the bluffing qualities have helped, not hindered him, in thus impressing the people. The people at least want the things which they think Coolidge has.

And these are the genuine, not the showy things of life. Except the few cynics, we all agree that the president has them.

GERMANS RATIFY

BERLIN, Aug. 12.—The reichstag today, without discussion, ratified United States-German mercial treaty which is based on the "most favored nation" principle. It also passed the tariff bill, over which there has been a bitter fight for many years.

Some opposition to the commercial treaty developed at first, but the government succeeded in calming this, and ratification was as sured some days ago when the foreign committee of the reichstag approved it.

The tariff bill, the chief feature of which is levying higher rates on agricultural products and on certain imported commodities like au-tomobiles, had been the target of Communist obstruction for many

AMERICA TAKES UNUSUAL INTEREST IN EUROPEAN PEACE PACT NEGOTIATIONS

Employment Of Insurance Rate Experts Urged

Employment of insurance engineers, also classified as rate experts, for the purpose of reducing the total cost of insurance carried by the school district, was considered at the regular school board meeting held yesterday afternoon in the board rooms.

The advantages of such service were outlined by several insurance experts, who appeared before the board with various proposals. In-stead of receiving a fixed compen-sation for their services, the insurance engineers would receive 56 per cent of the total amount saved in premiums, compared with the present cost and carrying the same coverage.

In view of the fact that two members of the board, Charles F. Smith and Marshall L. Keeler, were absent, no action was taken on the proposals. Secretary F. L. Andrews suggested that the proposed contract of employment be referred to the county superintendent and the district attorney for an opinion as to its legality. President Alex Brownridge expressed the opinion that no financial arrangements should be entered into which in any way would bind the person nel of the new school board.

In this connection Brownridge intimated that he had had enough of school board business and would willingly step out for some other candidate.

A WORD OF COMFORT
Some men, who have gone blind, have abjectly lost everything. Others have been robbed of their eyesight, yet have retained so many interests and capacities and ambitions that they have outstripped competitors who could see.

A great grief ruins a small man; it stimulates one who is inherently great to rise to heights of attainment and of service undreamed of before.

Long as it seems at times, your existence upon this earth is comparatively brief. Do your best while you have the chance. The reunion of Paradise is just beyond.

Correct Clothes To Meet The Obligation Of Every Occasion

What is mourning dress?, asks a correspondent. Mourning is practice which fashion keeps alive, even as it keeps pull-straps in boots or buttons on sleeves, though both are as bereft of real excuse as a saddle would be upon an automobile. Mourning is a litate of mind, not a mode of dress. It is a personal, intimate affair for self-communion which only concerns a community of one. It was self-evidently ridiculous.

Mourning ribbons upon hat or sleeve are still worn, though always to be avoided is the black band encircling the sleeve of a light-colored coat. The suit was passed out.

Turning from the subject of mourning to the brighter one of solorful clothes, the fad of matching various articles of men's dress as now spread even to hat-ribbons. Here you see the hat-band and he silk or lisle belt reproduced in harmonizing stripes. This is an nevitable development of the matching handkerchief and scarf and he matching suspenders and garters, a practice now at its height. There can be no objection to matching within the bounds of reason and good taste. Overdone, it is silly. Be good enough to remembers that the charm of dress is not harmony, but contrast. SANTA ANA MAN IN CHINA BLAMES BOLSHEVISTS FOR ANTI-FOREIGN OUTBREAKS

That riots and bad feelings to fire, of course, came from the against foreigners in China uninternational settlement. The indoubtedly are due to propaganda being circulated throughout country by Bolshevists that the situation at this time is critical and posed of representatives of all nathat war for the entire country threatens if further rioting continues, is the word sent to Santa Ana from Shanghai by Walson Whiting Gatrell, to his grandmother, Mrs. Lucy J. Whiting, 506 East Chest-

Gatrell is in business in Shan-ghai, and apparently is well versed in the conditions in that country. His letter clearly tells the story, as

"The Shanghai incident was the first outbreak to take place," he writes. "The actual reported cause for the outbreak was agitation on the part of the students against the treatment given Chinese workers in a Japanese mill. and did considerable damage to the achinery and equipment of the nill and refused to leave when ordered. To protect property and lives of the owners, the police found it necessary to fire and ac-

Propaganda Hot Bed "The students' clubs, which for some time have been a hotbed of Bolshevik propaganda and general anti-foreign feeling, decided to hold meetings in the concession and to run down the foreigners, particularly venting their spite on the Japnese. Some of the students went on far in their demonstration an houted insulting remarks to the oreigners in general and the municipal authorities in particular. It was therefore thought advisable to arrest some of these boys in order o stop the demonstrations and to open up the streets to traffic, the crowds which had gathered con-sisting, of course, of many idle orkmen and bad characters. "It might first be explained that

Shanghai for some time, has been in bad shape, owing to the active ork of armed robbers and petty thieves. As soon as some of the students were arrested by the police, the rest of them raised a tremendous uproar, gathered a large crowd and rushed the Sinza police station. The police turned a hose on the crowd, numbering some 2000 and tried to fight the mob with batons and sticks. They were be taken. Possibly we would be unable to restrain the mob, however, and when the attackers bean entrance, using stones and clubs as their weapons, the police were forced as a last resort, to fire on them. A few of the students were killed and some wounded. There is no doubt whatsoever that the lives of the police and the property of the municipal council police station were in grave dangternational settlement, or so-called Shanghai municipal council, is comtions, the chairman of it being an American. However, the students -and it certainly appears that Bolshevists are sponsoring them-are wise enough to concentrate their threats and agitation against just two nations, the Japanese and the British. The reason for this is, of ourse, very obvious, in that they do not wish the foreign powers ere to have any unified policy until they have the situation in their own hands to such an extent that they can effect a general outbreak.

Cause of Trouble

"There undoubtedly is a lot of political propaganda behind all of the trouble. It is evident to some who have traveled around China, he mill workers went on strike that anti-foreign feeling has been aroused even in the up-country places. The government is hopeless. It has no power, money nor troops. It is now playing into the ands of the students purely as a political scheme.

"The Chinese press has been printing false and seditious reports and circulating them throughout the country. It even has been bold enough to publish articles declaring that foreigners should be run out of the country and that the foreigner is the cause of the present unrest and trouble in China. Any reasonable person knows, of course, that there is not a word of truth in this. The Chinese government itself is to blame. The trouble is that the Chinese people have for so long endured the hardships mposed upon them by their ships imposed upon them by their for revolt, and it appears as though they do not care much whom they revolt against. The students are demanding outrageous things, such as public apologies from the Japanese and British ministers, the return of the various concessions and the abolishing of extra-territorial-

No Need To Fear "In my opinion, we do not need to fear for our lives unless the military leaders themselves turn against the foreigners. In this case we undoubtedly would receive warning so that precaution could removed, by ships, out of China. There is, however, no question but came so violent as to try and force that the situation is critical. There is a distinct anti-foreign movement and wherever crowds gather the same old cry, 'kill the foreigner,' is heard.

"Propaganda is being circulated throughout the country and if any further unfortunate incidents occur further arousing the people, situation might very easily develop "The authority given the police than the Boxer rebellion."

OHIO ARCHBISHOP

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 12.— Amidst a setting of ecclesiastical pomp and splendor, Archbishop Designate John T. McNicholas, late of Duluth, Minn., was elevated to the holy throne of the Catholic archdiocese of Cincinnati, at St. Peter's cathedral today.

Archbishop McNicholas succeeded by papal decree to the office vacated by the death of the late Archbishop Henry Moeller. Impressive rites, in which dis-tinguished members of the Roman Catholic heirarchy participated, accompanied the prelate's induction in office. The new emissary of the Holy See was enthroned by George Cardinal Mundelein, of Chicago. Eight hundred Knights of Columbus, Knights of St. John and diocesen priests, the latter garbed in the cassock, surplice and biretta of the church, began the installation ceremonies by escorting the new archbishop from St. Mary's seminary, where he spent the night, to St. Peter's.

Allow us to suggest that the county give it to the city, to dump on South Main street. Seems as though the city is trying to see how bumpy they can make this street, and we believe the sandstone will aid their purpose materially.

One member suggested that it would make good ballast for a ship, but here's an even better suggestion: Save it and erect a monument at Fourth and Main streets in honor of those gallant citizens who park in the center of the street at the post office.

One reader, who attended yesterday's meeting of the board of supervisors and heard discussion regarding the budget for the coming year, suggests that the word be changed to He claims that "budget" is feminine, and from the amount being talked of, it should certainly bear a masculine name, therefore, "budgot."

It's a certainty, he said, that the budget is "budging," and that it is not a "bud" any longer. The "get" on budget means "try and

There were four girls and a man in the car. The brave motor cop shrieked his siren, stopped, and wrote a ticket. Today, there are two big pies waiting for the officer at the station, brought in by the girls.

Did the other motor cops eat the pies? They did not. There are reasons. They don't know whether the pies were left there as an inducement, or whether as a means of getting even with the cop.

Time will tell. The cop will eat the pies, and then all will know. Watch the papers for a story of an officer being off duty on account of illness. It may 'pop" now, any time.

One of the most heated discussions of the supervisor's meet-ing yesterday was "whether it paid to maintain a steam shovel in the county."

There may have been a reason for this, however. WHEN TO BUY MONEY It is generally agreed that the ime to buy is when other people want to sell provided what is purchased has real intrinsic value. This rule applies to commodites and to securities. For when everyone wants to sell, the price forced down and eventually down below actual value. The reason that people sell at the same time is because it always looks as though the price was going indefinitely lower.

Now there is no way of ascertaining when the ultimate low is reached. The time factor is the unknown factor in the equation. In the case of commodities, when the price is at or below the cost of production purchase is generally advisable. It is not so easy to recognize the low points for securities. But there always comes a time when everything unfavorable in the situation has been discounted in the price.

All these principles are well known both to speculators and to intelligent investors. They may be applied to a commodity not generally thought of in this connection and that commodity is money. The best time to buy money is when everyone else wants to seil. What is meant by selling money? People sell money when they rush head-long to exchange it for something else, bonds, stocks, wheat, cotton, sugar or what-not. Sometimes they sell not only their own money but money they borrow from anyone who will lend.

When this sort of mania seizes investors and speculators alike it may be advantageous to separate oneself from the crowd and consider whether or not it would be wise to buy money instead of selling it. How can one buy selling it. How can one buy money? It may be bought by the sale of securities or of commodities. That is in effect what the speculator does when he short" of the market but that is not the only way. When the price of securities is abnormally high and an investor disposes of his holdings he is actually buy-ing money. That is, of course, a much safer operation than speculative "short selling."

There is no way of telling just when it is the most profitable to undertake this operation but that there is such a time admits of no argument and that time is always when everybody else wants to buy securities or commodities regardless of price. Why you pay for quality—not freight when you buy the Veedol "film of protection"

THE map tells the story. It I shows where Veedol comes from, where it is made, and how it is shipped to the Pacific Coast.

The pipe lines are Tide Water's. Through them are pumped the choicest Eastern crudes, carefully selected from Tide Water's own oil wells. The mammoth refinery at Bayonne, N. J., is Tide Water's own.

In its stills and agitators and filters, Veedol is refined. In its laboratories 3,000 tests a month insure the uniformity of the Veedol "film of protection."

The map shows how Veedol is shipped to the Pacific Coast all the way by water. That explains why the cost of shipping Veedol is so low. It costs less than one cent a quart to bring Veedol out to the Pacific Coast, in the original sealed containers. You pay for quality—not freight.

Today drive up to the nearest Veedol dealer. The orange and black Veedol signs are everywhere. Ask specifically to have your crankcase drained and refilled with Veedol-and let the "film of protection" safeguard your motor from now on.

HOW TO ANSWER BLIND CLASSIFIED ADS In answering blind addresses (for instance, L, Box 36, Register, or other similar addresses), please be careful to use the precise address given in the ad. Write address given in the ad. Write address plainly. Letters brought to The Register office do not require stamps. Always inclose your answer in sealed envelope. T. F. (TILL FORBID) ADS If an advertiser who has made application for credit and opened an account with The Register Credit Department in the regular form desires to have any "liner" advertisement published continuously "until further notice" he may do so by signing a "TF" order to that effect. An advertisement thus begun will appear regularly until countermanded by written order. BOX OFFICE REPLIES The Register postoffice department is conducted for the benefit of patrons who wish answers to come to the office. Advertisers are furnished with identification cards, which must be presented at The Register office. For the protection of our patrons, replies are not given out except on presentation of box card. No record is kept of the names and addresses of patrons using The Register postoffice, and therefore no information concerning these advertisers can be supplied. A charge is made for the words "Box A-234, care The Register." 19 Business Opportunities 14 Help Wanted-Male (Continued)

Always ask that your ad be repeated back to you by the ad taker to make sure that it has been taken correctly. The egister assumes no responsibility for errors in tele-of any advertisement ordered for more than one time.

Errors not the fault of the advertiser will be adjusted by a free insertion, if such errors lessen the value of the ad. All claims for adjustment should be made within five days after insertion. No allowance will be made where the error does not materially affect the value of the ad.

In the case of Want Ads containing more than one item, adjustment will be made only on the item containing the error.

The Register reserves the right to classify Want Ads under proper headings.

The line rates appear at the top of the index.

Ads containing capital letters, display type or white space are computed by the line basis, 12 lines to the inch.

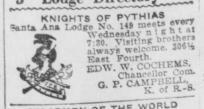

There is no Sunday edition. Advertisements received at the office before 11 a. m. will be classified in the evening edition.

Mayor to Pitch First Ball, Trickey to Don Mask For Opening Ceremonies Members of the Santa Ana Junior Chamber of Commerce today were laying final plans for the "Old-Timer's" baseball game which will be played under its auspices at Irvine park next Sunday afternoon for the benefit of local playgrounds' equipment. Arthur Trickey, former manager of the Irvine Beanpickers, had donated the use of the cross-roads diamond to the Junion chamber so the teams composed of ex-major and minor league players will "show their stuff" at the home of he Orange county semi-pro cham-

Mayor John W. Tubbs has agreed to pitch the first ball over the plate and Trickey will make an effort to corral "Hizzoner's" toss. Contesting teams will be picked from former professional players now residing near this city. Such famous old-timers as Sam Dungan. once the premier slugger of the big leagues, and "Gavvy" Cravath, former home run king of the big tent, will be in action, to say nothing of such men as Anson Mott, Harry Gaspar, Roy Hitt, Joe Hoover, George Lackaye, "Bus" Callan, Roy and Claire Head, Beck Lanfranco, Guy Meats, Harry Blaeholder, Roy ("Brownie") "Dutch" Hinrichs,

Carl Stevens, Ed Vegely, Ed Wentz and Mefford. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock, will go the regulation nine innings if the old boys can still stand the gaff and is expected to attract one of the largest crowds that ever attended a baseball game in Orange county. Fans from all sections of the county are looked

The Junior Chamber of Commerce also has other sporting events planned. Organization of tennis players for a tournament was begun today by Walde Andersen, general athletic manager of the chamber. All members desiring to play are urged to communicate with Anderson or Bruce Switzler, secretary Leo Hartfield, local jeweler, has offered a handsome trophy to the player who captures the singles event in the chamber's tournament. Golfing members already have begun to tune up for the chamber's econd links tourney which will bein October 1 and which probably will be played at the Santa Ana County club if arrangements can be made to use this grass course.

large number of newspaper and camera men are now at Cape Gris Nez, France, intent on swimming the English channel in the near future. All feel confident that they will be able to repeat what Tirabischi and Sullivan and Toth dia in 1923

The ambitious swimmers are Lillian Harrison, the 21-year-old Argentine girl, who proved her ability by finishing fourth in the across-Paris race this summer and who expects to swim off from the rocks of Gris Nez as soon as favorable tides set in again. Miss Harrison is a small, unathletic-looking girl but her chances are considered good.

Gertrude Ederly expects to make commission has just arrived. A slim, fragile wisp of a girl left Chicago with her mother three years ago and came to California, hoping to regain some of her lost health. The other day that same girl flaming red running suit with crimson cheeks to match, a dazzling specimen of feminine virility, broke three world's track and field records for women. It was Helen Filkey, now rec-athlete in the world. At the Women's National A. A. U. championships at Pasadena, Helen competed with America's finest spo women, and in one afternoon cended to the topmost rung of the woman's athletic ladder of fame.

She set new world's records in the running broad jump, the 100-yard dash and the 60-yard high hurdles. Her leap in the broad jump was 17 feet, she clipped the century in 11-2-5 seconds, and ran the tall hurdles in 8 3-10 seconds.

A girl capable of these feats should be a proverbial Amazon-busky, masculine and rugged. But nor muscular. In irrigation practice, water should be applied in sufficient quantity to reach the root zone of whatever crop is being irrigated. However, it should not be applied in excess of this, as it will the soluble fertilizers down beyond the depth of the root zone. in addition, the grower is standing the cost of pumping the additional water, which does him no good.

There is a common conception that water rises to a considerable height by capillarity, which is not true, except from a free water table, and in which instance, the rise is inversely to the size of th soil particles. Where no free wa ter table exists, the additional wa ter supplied going down beyond the root zone returns but little for the use of the plant.

Many Friends In Attendance at Preston Funeral

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 12.—A large attendance marked the funeral of Guy Preston, local oil worker, killed while working on a rig, which was held here yesterday afternoon. Unusual sympathy for Mrs. Preston and the young children who survive has been evidenced throughout the city.

Guy Preston was the third member of the Preston family, pioneers of Huntington Beach, to have met with serious accident within a period of 10 years. A sister was in the city when killed struck by an electric car, and a brother of the deceased was seriously injured in an auto accident some years ago which rendered him unconscious for nearly six weeks.

You can get from 15 to 30 miles more to the tankful of "Red Crown" if you follow the practical instructions in the Red Crown Mileage Card. Here's one motorist who got more:

"Twe been following my mileage with a Red Crown Mileage Card, and I'll say the Standard Oil Company knows how to make real mileage gasoline. I'm getting 280 miles on a 20gallon tank against 220 miles just a month ago, so I'm 60 miles to the good. How's that?"

You, too, can get extra mileage from "Red Crown"-start "saving miles" today. Buy from any Red Crown pump in town.

EVENING SALUTATION

Trust in the Lord and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. Psalm 37:3.

THE COUNTY'S EXPENDITURES

Orange county's expenditures for the year just finished totaled $500,000 less than the expenditures for the year previous. That, we take it, is quite a reduction. No other business institution in the county, we suspect, can show such a reduction in expenditures.

But the fact that we spend $500,000 less or $500,-000 more in one year than we spent in another is not surprising. To be sure, in these days when economy in public business is a popular cry and a potent influence among voters, public bodies ought to save as many half-millions as it is possible for them to save. No one relishes a stiff rise in taxes. But a rise or a drop in a county like ours is not surprising, for we have wide and varied demands. Like a growing child, we quickly outwear our clothing. Our courthouse became too small; we had to build a hall of records. A new jail has taken the place of the old jail. The county hospital has had several additions, and needs more. Scores of miles of pavement have had to be rebuilt. New bridges and new paving jobs loom ever before us.

So the question with us is this: Shall we spend a million or two million this year on improvements or cities. It has a courteous traffic squad. shall we do the work this year for which there is the most pressing demand, and hold off the rest for next year. In the past ten or twelve years there has not knows just what to do and what to expect. That been a year when the board of supervisors, had it been a year when the board of supervisors, had it destrians and more general satisfaction all around been willing to do in one year everything that it would like to have done and everything for which there was an insistent demand, could not have spent a couple of million dollars more than it did spend.

Orange county has nothing to worry about in relation to its tax rate, for our tax rate for years has been among the half-dozen lowest county rates in the state. Moreover, our assessed valuations have been lower than the average Southern California county, so that we have not been beating the devil around the bush as is so frequently done by boards of supervisors or city councils—by which we mean that a lowered tax rate does not mean anything if in order to get it an assessed valuation is raised to provide just as much money as would have been raised had the tax rate and assessment remained unchanged.

Our big problems in a financial way are: First, from among the many things that ought to be done and that as a county we would like to do, to select those things that we want most and are willing to pay for this year, and, second, to see to it that in our expenditures we get our money's worth.

We do not believe that our supervisors can be charged justly with going too fast with improvements. If anything, we might find ground for criticism for conservatism. Surely, we have not had the hall of records, the jail, the additions to the hospital, new bridges, and new highways sooner than we have needed them. And as to getting our money's worth, we declare without hesitation that we believe that Orange county taxpayers have every reason to feel confident that they are getting their money's worth. There never was a time in the history of the county when official policies, methods and systems were in better shape from a business point of view than they are now, and this county, as we all know in all its thirty-seven years of history has never been a grafter

We believe that we are getting our money's worth, and whether the total expenditures go $500,000 higher or are dropped $500,000 lower the coming year, or remain the same as last year, we will be getting public improvements that we need and good value greater opportunity for favorable publicity. for our tax money. The ordinary taxpayer, who feels the burden of taxes at tax-paying time, were he a supervisor, charged with the responsibility of keeping the county's business and affairs in good shape and its institutions up to date, would do no less.

And in writing the above we are not forgetting that the question or whether the total tax receipts of the county shall go up or down is not entirely within the hands of the supervisors, for the supervisors have no control over a large share of the tax money. There are fixed charges, such as bonds and interest, brought about by the vote of the people perhaps years ago. There are schools, which spend more than fifty per cent of the money raised in taxes, and many special districts, including districts for lighting, libraries, protection, drainage and road improvements, which altogether require no small sum of money to keep their projects going in the way those interested in those districts want them to go.

THE UNFAIR TAX-EXEMPT

On July 1, there were 242 per cent more wholly tax-exempt securities in hands of public than on December 31, 1912, and 13.6 per cent more than on fied with his community. December 31, 1923.

Safe Motoring Essential

San Bernardino Sun California's interest in the movement to make notoring more safe for those who motor and also for those who do not is greater than that of any other state. With the exception of New York, Caliornia issued more motor vehicle licenses last year than any other state. This year the outlook is that even New York will have to take second place. In addition to the million and a half vehicles li-censed in the state, at least 150,000 from other states will use our highways and city streets. On the average the foreign car travels more miles per day than the local car, thus increasing the hazards beyond the mere ratio of cars.

While this gives us prime interest in promoting safety on the highways and streets, it also suggests caution as to the measures adopted. Many millions f dollars are expended in this state by motor visitors. They should be treated with all courtesy and consideration, not only as a prompting of the spirit of hospitality, but from plain busines motives. We want them to go home pleased and enthusiastic about California when they talk with their friends. San Bernardino is more fortunate than some other

What is needed is a universal code of traffic aws for the whole country, so that, no matter where the automobile may roll its wheels the driver Not only uniform regulations, but uniform marking of highways, is a requisite of safe and satisfactory driving. More official and less unofficial markings should be given the roads. With the motorist knowing just what every sort of sign means and just what regulations he is going to encounter verywhere, both the pleasure and safety of autonobiling should be enhanced.

Figures Are Too High

County Superintendent of Schools Keppel of Los Angeles is not only a great educational leader, but also an enthusiastic booster for California in general and Los Angeles county in particular. His enthusiasm is commendable but sometimes it runs away with him. A case in point is his claim of ,000,000 population for Los Angeles county, based on a school attendance for the county of 265,940. That means using a ratio of seven and a half to one which the Press regards as much too high. In fact this paper would regard a ratio of five and a half to one as plenty high enough; that ratio would give Los Angeles county 1,462,670 population, or over 500,000 less than the Keppel estimate.

If Riverside city has an average daily attendnce in the schools of 4867; the Keppel ratio of esimating population would credit us with a popula-The more contion of 36,325 which is far too high. ervative five and half to one ratio would give us population of 26,785; and that is probably not far from correct. Riverside county has an average daily attendance in all the schools of 11,688. The Keppel system of estimating population would enable the county to claim 87,525 population and that is certainly not justified. The ratio suggested by the Press would give the county 64,185 population; and that seems a reasonable estimate.

In the long run it is very foolish to make extravagant claims on population. In due time the cold facts of the census will be made public; and ccunt of 1930 is announced. All we can do between the decennial test of the census bureau is to make estimates and some of those seem mere guesses. The safe plan is to be conservative; and if our estimates should prove too low, there will be the Long Beach Press-Telegram Better living conditions, public education, industrial inventions and progress, the banning of legalized alcohol, and the general improvement of the race, are combining to rapidly advance civilization in the United States, and to bring about that deocracy which is specifically expressed in the Declaration of Independence and in the Constitugree of efficiency and a better knowledge of economics are required. In the merchant marine, which once was supposed to attract the least desirable class of labor, improvement has been especially marked. Wages in recent years have more than doubled, and the treatment of sailors has so radically improved that there is no comparison. In consequence, American ship owners are handicapped through competition with certain foreign ountries which have lower wage scales, but they have the satisfaction of knowing that they employ the highest type seamen.

Only the most adept craftsmen can handle the intricate machinery of the present day. Poverty and Crime

It is not true, as a general proposition, that poverty in and of itself is a decisive factor in crime causation. If that were true, the countries possessing least wealth would show the greatest proportion of dishonesty, and the smallest would occur in rich countries.
